

AN AGED LADY LOST.

Mrs. Catharine Shulkum Missing Since 10 O'clock Yesterday.

Mrs. Catharine Shulkum, mother of Lawrence A. Shulkum, an engineer, who resides at No. 17 Fourth avenue n. w., wandered away from her home yesterday morning and has not been heard of since.

Mrs. Shulkum is eighty years old and speaks German. She can speak a little broken English, but it is with much difficulty that she can be induced to speak what little she does know of it.

The old lady went out of the house about 10 o'clock. Mrs. Shulkum thought she had only gone into the yard, and paid no attention to the matter for nearly an hour. Nothing could be found of her, and inquiries at the houses of all the neighbors in the vicinity failed to reveal any knowledge of her whereabouts.

Her son went to police headquarters yesterday and reported the matter to the authorities. The officers were requested to keep a lookout on their beats. It is presumed that Mrs. Shulkum has wandered away and fell helpless in some lonely place, or that she is at some stranger's house and cannot tell who she is or where she lives.

FOR A FOURTH WARD.

The Charter Committee Disposed to Favor the Wish of the Northwest.

The citizens of the northwestern portion of the city who are property holders will hold a meeting to-morrow night at Carr's Hall over the bottling works, on Shenandoah avenue, for the purpose of taking such action as may be found necessary to secure another ward.

The matter was mentioned to a TIMES reporter some days ago, and publication was made of the facts. Since then the people in that section have taken much interest in the matter, and are determined to put forth every effort to secure representation in the city municipal affairs. The movement was started only a few weeks ago, and the charter committee, of which Judge King is chairman, will embody a clause for another ward in the new charter.

The meeting promises to be well attended. Several gentlemen who are the movers in the matter, said it was necessary to have a meeting, as it would show the Council that the people in that section were desirous of the change.

THE FIRST PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.

Dr. Dinwiddie Preaches—Three New Elders Elected.

Dr. William Dinwiddie, who arrived here Saturday to hold a protracted meeting at First Presbyterian Church, preached Sunday morning at 11 o'clock and 7:30 o'clock Sunday night. The meetings were largely attended and full of interest. Dr. Dinwiddie is a strong preacher and possesses wonderful descriptive powers. He preached yesterday morning to a large congregation and also at night. He will preach two sermons each day. The morning service will begin at 10 o'clock and the night service at 7:30 o'clock, and will last an hour each.

Just after the morning services Sunday a congregational meeting was held and the following elders were elected: T. S. Van Horn, George Glass and J. H. Featherstone. The newly elected elders signified their intention of accepting, and will be installed at the next meeting of the Presbytery.

Garrett Dismissed.

The case of Edward Garrett, the negro who, on Saturday night, fired into the cabin car, in which a number of the section hands of the Norfolk and Western were staying, was before Mayor Evans yesterday morning. Mr. E. W. Robertson represented the employees of the road. Several of the hands who were present testified, but did not see Garrett fire the shot. Garrett denied doing the shooting, and proved by one witness that he was on Ninth avenue when, it is claimed, that the shooting occurred. It was stated that one of the railroad employees, who was not present, saw Garrett point the pistol at the door and fire the shot. The mayor said he was compelled to give Garrett the benefit of the doubt, but will reopen the case this morning and grant a new hearing. It was proven that Garrett made very strong threats.

A Sunday Night Raid.

The police raided a bawdy house kept by Mary Turner on Second street n. e. Sunday night and captured three tough young men and two women. They were before the mayor yesterday morning and were fined $5 each. The police did not get the Turner woman, as she very artfully succeeded in making her escape through a window.

A New Confectionery Store.

Mr. E. B. Dolin has neatly fitted up the store at 154 Salem avenue s. w. and is putting in a select stock of confectioneries, candies, fruits, bon-bons, nuts, raisins and a full line of toys. Mr. Dolin says he will keep everything that is kept by a first class confectionery store, and asks the people to call to see him, guaranteeing that he will satisfy everyone.

INDICTMENTS BY THE GRAND JURY.

The Smith-AHR Murder Trial to Be Called in Court To-Day.

Hustings Court convened yesterday morning, but no business was transacted except the actions of the grand jury, who were in session all day. The following gentlemen compose the grand jury, which was specially called: Col. Thomas Lewis, foreman; J. A. Branscom, Samuel Kinnier, W. J. Annin, A. M. Nelson and Moses Johnson, colored. They reported at 5 o'clock yesterday evening, bringing the following indictments:

Sarah Leftwich, felony; a true bill, in that she is charged with poisoning her step daughter, Amanda Leftwich.

Carter Lyons, felony; a true bill, in that he is charged with running a gaming table.

Laura Tinsley, felony; a true bill, in that she is charged with robbery from the person of Alex Smith.

The case of John Perkins, charged with a simple misdemeanor, was remanded to the mayor for disposal.

The grand jury will be in session to-day, when several other cases will be taken up.

The case of John Smith, for the murder of Peter Aliff, comes up for trial to-day, and the case of Amanda Leftwich is set for Friday.

The Franklin Road Macadamizing.

L. H. Vaughan, who has the contract for macadamizing the Franklin road, has graded that thoroughfare from Commerce to John street and will begin putting down macadam this week. Mr. Vaughan has not yet succeeded in getting his crusher, but has had a force of men breaking stone by hand for some days. He expects, however, to get a crusher in a few days. The work of putting down the macadam will begin at Commerce street. The first layer will be four inches thick. This will be rolled with a heavy steam roller, after which a two-inch coating of fine stone will be put on top and rolled smooth. The top coating is to contain no stone that will drop through a 1 1/4 ring.

A Sunday Collision.

Two bicyclists came near demolishing their machines and crippling themselves on Commonwealth avenue Sunday evening. It all happened by one of the riders running over an old rooster. The bird was divested of his feathers, the machine was thrown and, striking the other, hurled both to the ground. The bird was unharmed, and picking himself up made a rush for Old Liek, while the cackles and fappings resounded in the ears of the astonished bicyclists.

A Lost Young Man.

A young man attempting to find his boarding house Sunday night got into the hall of Mrs. O'Connor's residence on Second street, n. e. The family were alarmed, and Thomas O'Connor went to the door with his revolver and fired a shot. A policeman was attracted to the place and arrested the young man. He was taken to police headquarters and appeared before the mayor yesterday morning when he was dismissed, it being shown that the young man was only mistaken in the house.

It will cost you but one cent to write the Hobbie Music Co., Roanoke, Va., for prices and terms on pianos and organs, and it may save you $15 to $25 on an organ and $50 to $75 on a piano. Don't you think this would pay? Try it.

The Dixie Laundry.

THE proprietors of the Dixie Steam Laundry, Messrs. Steinmuller & Karuh, came from Baltimore to Roanoke. In starting a laundry here they put in the latest and best machinery, and have just put in additional machinery, viz: Collar and cuff ironer and a darning machine. The increase in business compelled them to make this addition, and they say they will continually add to their first-class laundry as the demand makes it necessary. They claim their work is first class, and they charge only popular prices. Some people have an idea that a laundry machine has teeth, tears the clothes. These gentlemen invite you to call at their laundry, Franklin and Second street s. w., and be shown through and see how the work is done.

THE CRESCENT CLUB

Getting Things in Readiness for the Opening Ball.

A number of workmen were busy yesterday papering the hall of the Crescent Club rooms over the postoffice, and by night the work was about complete. A person would not know the rooms. New carpet has been placed on the two front rooms, which will be used as a ladies' parlor. New gas fixtures have been put in and everything looks bright as a new pin.

The furniture will be placed in the hall to-day and will be arranged by the ladies. It is of the latest design and cost the club about $500.

Big preparations are being made for the opening ball and banquet Wednesday night. Morris Joo, the caterer of club, was busy having fowls roasted in the new kitchen yesterday, which will be kept going till that night.

He Casts His Lot in Roanoke.

The Charlottesville (Va.) Jeffersonian Republican says: Mr. S. Hamilton Graves, who has been reading law under Mr. A. R. Blakey, and has been with the firm of Blakey & Blakey for the last two years, has located in Roanoke. Mr. Graves is a young man of energy, good business qualification and habits and endowed with those qualities of mind which should render his success a certainty. We can safely recommend him to the confidence of those among whom he has located.

All such worthy young men can find a good welcome awaiting them in Roanoke, and the right kind of young men find but little trouble in building up a good practice. THE TIMES predicts a bright future for Mr. Graves.

Said He Was Killed.

A two horse team engaged in hauling earth became frightened on Jefferson street yesterday and ran off. The driver, a colored man, was thrown out in front of White's stable and the horses ran against some posts near the hobby horses and fell to the ground. The driver lay until some one asked him if he was hurt. He said he was killed, and on being helped to his feet ran off up Jefferson street, and has not been seen since. The owner came along soon and took charge of his team.

Hill's Case Postponed.

William Hill, the young white man who shot at Officer Early Saturday night while the officer was attempting to arrest him, was before the mayor yesterday morning, but the case was postponed until other parties could be secured. Early shot at Hill several times and finally captured him under a house near the ice factory.

Back From Chicago.

Rush U. Derr and Galen H. Coon, returned yesterday evening from Chicago, whither they went a few days ago in company with Mrs. Dr. H. A. Sims, who joined her husband in that city. Mr. Derr says Dr. Sims is much pleased with his new home and is building up a fine practice.

The Heating Apparatus Repaired.

The heating apparatus of the First ward school building has been thoroughly repaired and the rooms can now be kept comfortable. For several days past it has been impossible to keep the school regularly on account of lack of heat, but this trouble is now over.

An Artesian Well.

The artesian well at the brewery has been completed and proves a great success. The water is taken up from the six-inch tube by means of pumps and is deposited in tanks. It is much softer than the city water, and is used merely for the purpose of washing and for the boilers.

Bridge Nearing Completion.

The Norfolk and Western bridge across the Ohio river will be completed in a few days. Nothing remains to be done except some riveting and the painting.
